

To the end

Yohio

When the day breaks
and your heart aches When you feel like
your soul is crying
Your head hurts
and your mind's a blur
When you're ready to give up trying
You have to see through the dark
You will be loved, will be loved

To the end of the world
To the end of the universe
You will be loved, will be loved
To the end of the road in a place where the stars don't shine
You will be loved, will be loved

When the day breaks
in this cold place
When you feel like
there's something missing
Your head hurts
and your mind's a blur
When you realize you're second guessing
You will be loved, will be loved

To the end of the world..

Can you see me
Can you feel me
Can you hear me
I'm screaming for you My head hurts
and my mind's a blur but I know that you'll always be here

To the end of the world..
